

Save Oak Flat Act: Calls to Action for Repair Network

Background to the Save Oak Flat Act

The Save Oak Flat Act (SOFA) would protect a 2,422-acre site known as Chí'chil Bildagoteel (Oak Flat), the foundation of traditional Western Apache culture and religion.¹ Congress now has a historic opportunity to protect American Indian cultural and religious resources by enacting the Save Oak Flat Act.²

Rep. Raul Grijalva, D-AZ, introduced the H.R. 1884 Save Oak Flat Act (SOFA) earlier this year. It is now included in the House's $3.5 trillion budget reconciliation bill. H.R. 1884 will repeal Section 3003 land exchange of the 2015 National Defense Authorization Act. Sen. Bernie Sanders, I-VT, introduced an identical bill (S 915) in the Senate.

Calls to Action

- 1) Please ask your members of Congress to protect Oak Flat and support the Save Oak Flat Act. Below are multiple ways to contact your congressional leaders. Even if you have contacted them in the past, please contact them again. Ask them to keep the H.R. 1884 Oak Flat withdrawal language in the budget reconciliation bill. The bill includes a provision that reverses a land swap from the federal government to private copper mining interests in Oak Flat, an area within Arizona's Tonto National Forest.

Prayer posted at Oak Flat:

*"We pray for the sacred land of Oak Flat
For the ancestor hawks who watch over us for the holy trees that keep their arms open for us for the soothing leaves that provide medicine for us for the glistening waters that preserve fresh life for us for the canyons that maintain centuries of healing prayers for us for Resolution Copper to stop its attack and instead show love and compassion
We pray for the sacred land of Oak Flat."*
